

EMPTY BOX THEATRE COMPANY PRESENTS

A Young Lady's Guide to Vivisection

At the Toronto Fringe Festival July 2013

THE TORONTO
FRINGE
FRINGE FESTIVAL • NEXT STAGE • CREATION LAB

ADVERTISE WITH US Support Emerging Artists

Program*

An ad in our program will be seen by the hundreds of people who attend one of our seven shows from July 4th-14th

Flyers

Advertise in our flyers, and your company's business card will be handed out to the hundreds of people we distribute to in all areas of Toronto

ADVERTISING RATES:

Bronze – A business-card size advertisement in our program, thank you on our website - $50

Silver – A half-page advertisement in our program, thank you on our website - $75

Gold – A full-page advertisement in our program, thank you on our website - $100

Platinum – A full-page advertisement in our program, thank you on our website, a business-card size advertisement on our flyers, and 2 tickets to any one of our shows - $200

ABOUT THE SHOW

Vivisection: (from Latin vivus, "alive" and sectio, "cutting").

Grave-robbing! Cat dissections! Petticoats! Based on a bizarrely true story, this gruesome dramedy follows the Queen's University medical class of 1884 as they adjust to the first lady students, new scientific ideas, and the marvelously mad world of Victorian medicine.

To book your ad, please contact Keavy Lynch at (613) 929-6332 or emptyboxtheatre@live.ca

ABOUT THE COMPANY

- Empty Box Theatre Company is a non-profit organization, dedicated to updating classical texts and devising new plays.
- All of our artists are emerging artists, who are thrilled to have the opportunity to go to the Fringe
- We produce shows in St. Catharines and Kingston, and some of our past works include: Titus Andronicus (2013), An Ideal Husband (2012), and Tartuffe (2011)

*Note: Our program is NOT the program for the whole festival, and will only be handed out at our show

Show time must be chosen in advance